Dear Ms. Rodriguez:

Since I attached as Exhibit A, my e-mail to Ms. Kilgore, it is obvious that a response would be at a minimum necessary to confirm that she cancelled the deposition. If any abuse of process has occurred it is due to Ms. Kilgore's lack of professionalism. Therefore, please have the Hearing Officer issue and Order protecting Ms. Sutana from any claims that she did not appear at the deposition.

Very truly yours,

Ms. Rodriguez and Mr. Thompson: I am forwarding the courteous email I received from Mr. Thompson informing me that Ms. Sutana would not be able to be present at the deposition and offering to reschedule. He did not ask me to respond in any way to "avoid" the necessity of a motion for protective order. I accepted his excuse and was willing to reschedule as Mr. Thompson offered. The motion for protective order is completely unnecessary and a total abuse of this process.

Dear Ms. Kilgore:

Exhibit KK

I am writing to advise you that we must cancel Ms. Sutana's deposition, currently scheduled for August 30, 2013. Due to a recent medical diagnosis, Ms. Sutana has been scheduled for an immediate appointment to determine the extent of her recent diagnosis.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause and we will contact you and re-schedule her deposition after August 30, 2013.

Should you have any questions, please contact me.

Very truly yours,
